PRESENTATION
OF
MR. MANAGER BUYER

January 16, 1999

Judge Griffin Bell:

"A President cannot faithfully execute the laws if he himself is breaking them."

Constitutional Scholar Charles Cooper:

"The crimes of perjury and obstruction of justice, like the crimes of treason and bribery, are quintessentially offenses against our system of government, visiting injury immediately on society itself."

Judge Lacey Collier:

"One of the most troubling things in our society today is people who raise their hands, take the oath to tell the truth and then fail to do that..."

President John Adams:

"Facts are stubborn things; and whatever may be our wishes, our inclinations, or the dictates of our passions, they cannot alter the state of facts and evidence."
