June 3, 2004

Mr. Delahunt-

How can you stand on the House floor week after week and bash this Administration? You call yourself an American? You and your "Iraq Watch" colleagues should be ashamed of yourselves. Instead of prattling on and on about what YOU think the President has done wrong, you should consider how much safer we are now that Saddam is out of power. Think of all the lives we've saved, too! You do not represent me or

[redacted]