July 25, 2003

Dear Congressman Delahunt,

All Americans are against war. But there are just some times we have to come to the aid of people in need, even if they are not Americans.

Sadam Hussein was (and maybe still is) dangerous to the Middle East and to the United States. It doesn't matter to me if he actually had weapons of mass destruction. Or if he really was working with al Qaeda. He's a demon who was threatening world peace, and I'm glad he's out of power. Now, unlike with the first President Bush, we need to finish the job, even if that takes time and money.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Plymouth, MA