Dear Sir:

I hope I am not the only one of your constituents who is appalled at this idea that all of America is "united" behind the President in his war-like threats. Bombing Afghanistan will, it seems to me and many of my friends, create more enemies for our country. Sending in ground troops to find Osama bin Laden would be equally foolish: he is a hydra head. Cut it off and more monsters will grow out of it.

As for giving money to the airlines: please, PLEASE rescind President Bush's outrageous tax cuts for his rich friends, and THEN help the airlines.

Most sincerely,

[redacted]

P.S. And please do something about the widespread corruption and stupidity at Logan Airport! This obviously helped the hijackers get on those planes.
