

$553M funds isle military projects

Star-Bulletin

May 25, 2008

U.S. Rep. Neil Abercrombie says the 2009 National Defense Authorization Act passed by the House last week includes more than $553 million for military construction in Hawaii. Projects for Hawaii include:

- $279 million: Schofield Barracks (barracks, battalion complex, brigade complex, infrastructure)
- $40 million: Wideband Satellite Communications Operations Center, Wahiawa
- $9 million: Pohakuloa Training Area (Saddle Road construction)
- $28.9 million: Pacific Missile Range Facility Advanced Radar Detection Laboratory
- $28.2 million: Marine Corps Base Hawaii bachelor enlisted quarters (part of ongoing improvements to bachelor enlisted quarters)
- $80.2 million: Naval Station Pearl Harbor (joint forces deployment staging area, fitness center, child development center)
- $41 million: Submarine magnetic silencing facility
- $27.7 million: Defense Logistics Agency; replacement of fuel pipeline at Pearl Harbor
- $19.1 million: Army Reserve Center at Fort Shafter