ALEXANDER TO VISIT CONCORDIA PARISH SCHOOL CONGRESSMAN TO SPEAK TO FOURTH GRADE CLASS

Washington, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Rodney Alexander, R-Quitman, will visit Vidalia Upper Elementary School at 10 a.m., Tuesday, January 24.

Alexander will speak to the 4th grade class on the topic "What I do as a congressman."

"I value the opportunity to discuss the importance of public service," Alexander said.

"I believe that we must teach young children about public service because they will soon be making important decisions."

All members of the media are invited to attend.
