Subject: Stronger, more moderate Democratic Party

To the Honorable Congressman Delahunt,

I'm a moderate republican from your district who believes we need a strong two-party system to keep America on balance. I'm concerned that the Dems are held captive by special interests and the far left fringe. The GOP has done a moderately better job of keeping its fringe element (e.g., the religious right) on the sidelines. Because of the GOP is closer to center, many moderate dems have moved to the GOP (even when they don't agree on every position). That's why I believe there's been an explosion of conservative talking heads in the media.

I say the Dems should move closer to center and (in a JFK-Clinton sort of way) put some distance between the party and fringe liberals. The first fringe liberal to be sidelined is Howard Dean.

For the sake of the country, I implore you to bring back to the values of the moderate majority (who make up the bulk of democrat and republican voters). With balance, both parties will clean up their act and make the country a better place to live. Hope you agree. I would love to meet with you and discuss the matter at your convenience.

Thank you for your attention.

With gratitude,
