SPENCE APPOINTS HNSC VICE-CHAIRS

House National Security Committee Chairman Floyd D. Spence (R-SC) today announced the committee's Vice-Chairmen for the 105th Congress. "I am pleased to welcome back Representatives Bob Stump, Tillie Fowler, J.C. Watts, Saxby Chambliss, and Walter Jones to Vice-Chair positions on the committee. Their hard work and dedication have been important to the committee's many successes over the past two years. I am also pleased to be able to appoint Ron Lewis, Van Hilleary, and Joe Scarborough as Vice-Chairmen. I look forward to working with them in the 105th Congress as the committee strives to ensure that America's military remains second to none."
