Kind to Hold Congressional Open House in New Downtown La Crosse District Office

Citizens Invited to Meet with Rep. Kind; Learn About Available Constituent Services

La Crosse, WI - U.S. Congressman Ron Kind (D-WI) will hold an open house at his new downtown La Crosse office location, at 205 Fifth Avenue S., Suite 400, on Thursday, January 25, from 5:00-6:30 p.m. In addition to providing citizens an opportunity to meet directly with Rep. Kind and his staff, the open house is intended to offer information about the many services available to constituents, including help with federal programs and agencies, guidance in submitting grant applications, and overall assistance in realizing the ways the federal government can work for western Wisconsin.

“Every constituent in Wisconsin’s Third Congressional District owns a share of my congressional offices and qualifies for the services we offer to help make the federal government work for western Wisconsin,” stated Rep. Kind. “In addition to providing a channel through which citizens can voice their opinions on federal issues, my office is also a helpful resource for people who need guidance or assistance in dealing with the federal government. Anyone should feel comfortable walking in with questions, concerns, suggestions or input. As is my policy, the door is always open, I’m all ears, and we are here to help.”

In addition to the La Crosse office, Kind has an office in Eau Claire (131 S. Barstow St., Suite 301) and an office in Washington, D.C. (1406 Longworth House Office Building). For more information on the types of services available through Rep. Kind’s congressional office, please visit www.house.gov/kind or call toll free, 1-888-442-8040.
