School Districts Win Phys. Ed. Grants

WASHINGTON – School districts in Rock Hill and Lancaster have been awarded physical education grants from the Department of Education, U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) announced today.

Rock Hill School District Three and Lancaster County School District will each receive funding under the Department's Carol M. White Physical Fitness Program.

For the next fiscal year, which begins October 1, Rock Hill School District Three will receive $335,866 and Lancaster will receive $148,005.

Funded activities include training of teachers and staff, purchase of equipment, and other support necessary to enable students to participate in physical education activities.
