Lancaster’s “Communities in Schools” Program Wins Grant

WASHINGTON – U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) announced today that Lancaster’s “Communities in Schools” program has been awarded a $219,993 grant from the U.S. Department of Justice Department.

The funds will enable the organization to provide one-to-one mentoring and social activities for young people between the ages of 8 and 16 who are at risk of academic failure, dropout, or other problem behaviors.
