Spratt to Give Democratic Radio Address

WASHINGTON — U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC), the Ranking Member on the House Budget Committee, will deliver the Democratic radio address at 11:06 am ET, Saturday, March 3, 2001.

Each week, the President records an official address that is broadcast on thousands of stations nationwide. The address is either fed live or taped at exactly 10:06 AM ET on Saturdays. It is carried by eleven main radio networks: ABC, AP, C-SPAN, NBC/Mutual/Westwood One, NPR, UPI, USA, American Urban Radio Network, Armed Forces, Radio Network, and Standard News Radio.

The Democratic radio response will follow the President's address at exactly 11:06 AM ET on Saturday. The response is also heard on the aforementioned radio networks.
