Spratt Announces Award to Goucher Elementary

WASHINGTON – U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) announced today that the Goucher Elementary School Media Center, in Gaffney, has been awarded a collection of classic books on the theme of “courage” from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The books, such as Little House on the Prairie and The Red Badge of Courage, will enable young readers to examine the meaning of courage from many perspectives.

The Endowment’s “We the People” bookshelf program supports projects that strengthen the teaching, study, and understanding of American history.
