Spratt Statement on Laura Fleming

WASHINGTON – U.S. Rep. John Spratt (D-SC) today issued the following statement on Laura Fleming, of Lancaster, who died last night.

“Laura Fleming was an all-American success story, a woman who rose from the ranks to become president of Springmaid Credit Union, which she then built into Founders, the largest financial institution in our area, based on local deposits.

“Laura was smart and astute, but also warm and engaging, and forever involved in community projects. She leaves much behind, including Founders, which is a reflection of her personality. She was a dear friend, advisor, and supporter; and like everyone who knew her, I will miss her greatly.”
