Dear Friend:

The new Congress faces many important decisions.

I want to reach out to you — in the early months of 2007 — to hear your priorities for the coming year. Please fill out this survey online at www.house.gov/stark/survey/ or fold and staple the survey where indicated, add a stamp, and put it in the mail.

Thank you for taking the time to make me aware of your priorities. I hope to see you at my town meetings on Saturday, February 17th.

Pete Stark

Foreign Policy

Should Congress work to end the War in Iraq by withholding funds for the war effort?  Yes  No  Undecided

Iran continues to enrich uranium that could be used to develop nuclear weapons. In response, conservatives in the Administration are considering military strikes. Do you support military action against Iran?  Yes  No  Undecided

Health Care

As Chairman of the Health Subcommittee on Ways and Means, health policy is my major responsibility in Congress. Should the United States provide quality health care to all?  Yes  No  Undecided

Children and Families

Should Congress fund community-based programs that offer parenting support and quality early childhood programs for all children from birth to age five?  Yes  No  Undecided

The number of children living in poverty has increased in each of the last six years. Do you support expansion of government programs to lift people out of poverty (e.g. job training, housing assistance, child care, welfare)?  Yes  No  Undecided

Taxes

Since 2000, Republicans in Congress have passed trillions of dollars in tax breaks. Do you think Congress should repeal these breaks for the wealthiest Americans, people who make more than $500,000 a year?  Yes  No  Undecided

Environment

Should Congress mandate that industry reduce greenhouse gas emissions from cars, power plants, and other industrial sources?  Yes  No  Undecided
