Dear Friend:

Congress faces many important decisions this year.

I want to reach out to you - early in 2008 - to learn about your priorities. Please fill out this survey online at www.house.gov/stark/survey or fold and staple the survey where indicated, add a stamp, and put it in the mail.

Thank you for taking the time to respond. I hope to see you and hear more about your priorities at my town meetings on Saturday, February 16th.

HEALTH CARE

Medicare currently provides quality health care to seniors age 65 and older and people with disabilities. Should Congress allow the millions of uninsured people above age 55 who are not yet eligible for Medicare to obtain health care by buying into the program at no cost to the government?

Yes No Undecided

IMMIGRATION

Several proposals for immigration reform are currently pending in Congress. Do you think such reforms should allow undocumented immigrants already in America to earn permanent residency?

Yes No Undecided

WOMEN'S RIGHTS

President Bush has reinstated former President Ronald Reagan's "global gag rule," which prohibits the United States from providing funds for family planning to international organizations that provide abortions. Should Congress repeal this rule?

Yes No Undecided

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

California is currently the only state to ensure that new parents and workers caring for a sick family member are able to take six weeks of paid leave. Should the federal government follow suit and ensure that workers across the country have paid family and medical leave?

Yes No Undecided

HONEST GOVERNMENT

Should Congress impeach President Bush?

Yes No Undecided

EDUCATION

Should Congress revise the No Child Left Behind Act to increase funding and local flexibility while maintaining high accountability standards?

Yes No Undecided

CIVIL LIBERTIES

Several telecommunications companies complied with the Bush Administration's warrantless wiretapping program and made customers' telephone conversations and email correspondence available to the government for review. Should individuals whose private communications were disclosed be able to sue the telecommunications companies?

Yes No Undecided

CONTACT METHOD
